

Lanerie, Corey: Born: Nov. 13, 1974. From: Lafayette, LA.

Racing is in Lanerie's blood: His grandfather was a trainer who also had some horses, and his father Gerald was a jockey and is now a trainer. Grew up in Lafayette, La. where racing is a strong part of the local culture and non-sanctioned "bush" races are held on weekends ... Jockeys who got their start in the region include Hall of Fame members Kent Desormeaux and Eddie Delahoussaye. Was always around horses and rode in the bush races before launching his professional career in 1991 ... First winner was aboard High Hopes Banquet at Evangeline Downs on April 19,1991.

In 2014 earned the George Woolf Memorial Jockey Award, chosen by fellow riders for talent and character that best represents the profession.

Second in the 2017 Kentucky Derby on Lookin At Lee.

Family: Wife Shantel; daughter Brittlyn Ava.
