

Cedillo, Abel: Born: Feb. 5, 1989. From: Guatemala.

Grew up in Guatemala, very poor. The oldest of 6—has 3 brothers and 2 sisters. His father moved to the U.S. when Abel was 15 years old and was working as a groom at Adena Springs farm in Ocala, FL when Abel came to join him when he was 17. Abel got a job at a nearby farm where his uncle was an exercise rider. Abel started out as a groom but within a few months started galloping horses.

Abel did not grow up around horses. It wasn't until he was 17 years old, when he started to work with them... and he had no fear of them. He liked them right away. Felt like they were easy and honest to work with. He didn't even think about becoming a jockey until he had been galloping horses for a few months but when he watched some races on TV he thought "I could do that. I want to do that."

He rode his first few races in Ocala, FL then moved to the San Francisco area because he had family there and he needed to get his work visa/green card and they could help him with that. He found a job straight away galloping horses and then a few months later (after getting his green card in order as well) started riding again as a jockey.

Cedillo eventually rose to the top of the jockey standings at Golden Gate but didn't really get "hot" until the year after his apprenticeship. He eventually won over 1,000 races there and, subsequently, caught the eye of jockey agent Tom Knust who brought him to Del Mar at the start of the 2019 summer meet.

Family: wife, Jasmin, and son (born Dec. 30, 2016) Abel, Jr. Jasmin is Mexican/American, U.S. born and she is a nurse.
